How to Lose All Your Friends by Nancy Carlson

Character Trait: Caring, Respect
Small group: Friendship
Grades: K-2nd, 3rd-4th
Time: 30 minutes
Materials:
  How to Lose All Your Friends Book
  Worksheet

Lesson:
1. Tell the students you are going to read them a book about how they can lose all of their friends. Wait for their reaction. Tell them the book shows ways people behave that might actually make them lose their friends.
2. Read How to Lose All Your Friends.
3. Explain that you want to rewrite the story telling how we can make and keep friends.
4. K-2nd- Show students the worksheet. Discuss opposites and complete the worksheet together.
5. 3rd-4th- Brainstorm a list of ways to make and keep friends. Divide the list between the students, having each student illustrate one of the ways to make and keep friends. Put the illustrations together in a class book.