It’s Not Fair! By Amy Krouse Rosenthal & Tom Lichtenheld

Character Trait: Fairness
Small group: Friendship
Grades: 2nd-4th
Time: 30 minutes
Materials: It’s Not Fair! Book

Lesson:
1. Ask your students “Have you ever said ‘That’s not fair!’”
2. Ask your students to give examples of times they thought something was not fair.
3. Discuss Unfair vs. Unlucky or Unequal using the student’s examples.
4. Tell the students they are going to hear a book where other kids think things are unfair.
5. Using the examples in the book, discuss whether the situation is unfair, unlucky or unequal.
6. Summarize by saying “Next time you think something is unfair, stop and think about it before saying it.”